Region Map

初めに、世界地図が出てきます。左側には様々なメニューに直接アクセスできるナビメニューがあります。この地図上で、現在進行中や休止したもの、または国を超えて行われているもの、国際・国内でのテロの有無なども色分けして表示されます。

地図上で選ぶこともできますし、直接国名を指定することもできます。

1つの地域を選ぶと、次にその地域の地図と国名が表示されます。左側のメニューバーから Country List で国を選ぶこともできますし、Non State Armed Group から国境を越えた紛争を選択できます。
